

Volunteer of the Year Nomination Form

Volunteers are our public libraries most important free resource. Each Friends group in North Carolina has one or more volunteers who really make a difference in how projects are planned and executed. They might be the ones who direct the Friends group or give their time, energy, creativity or finances behind the scenes to make their library the best it can be.

Friends of North Carolina Public Libraries (FONCPL) is proud to sponsor the Volunteer of the Year Award, which recognizes your special volunteers. This is your chance to let these dedicated people know how much they are appreciated and to honor them.

Five awards will be given at the FONCPL Annual Recognition Luncheon Saturday, October 22, 2011 at the Chatham Community Library in Pittsboro. Winners will receive a $150 check for their Friends group and a framed recognition certificate. Please enter your special worker so he/she can be honored, if chosen for your area, at this meeting. Let them know how much you appreciate all that they do!

Friends groups sending in nominations for this award must be members of FONCPL.
